Arleigh Williams to Speak Before Albany Rotary

Arleigh Williams, Dean of Men at the University of California; C. graduate with the Class of 1958, football star, former coach at Alameda High, Dean of Men at Alameda College, and Dean of Students, ASUC, will address the Albany Rotary Club next Tuesday noon on the subject, "The University and the Student Background." Kenneth M. Forry, Albany Superintendent of Schools, will be chairman of the day. Vice President Roy Harford will preside.

The October luncheon programs will include the following: October 6, Bernhard Schrader, chairman, with Officer Lee Wood of the California Highway Patrol as his speaker; October 13, Joseph Dagna, chairman, with Merle Haddard speaking; October 20, Howard Bauer and Elmer Able as co-chairmen, with Bill Able to speak on "Christian Athletes Fellowships," while on October 27 District Governor Eugene Rideout will speak at the luncheon meeting, and will preside in the evening over a club conference.

Preschool Mothers Fear Dentist, Doctor

The Albany Preschool Mothers' Club was fortunate in having two speakers at its last monthly business meeting, which was held on Wednesday, September 16, at 400 Masonic Avenue, at 8 p.m.

Dr. Thomas Cook, M.D., spoke on "Accident Prevention" and Dr. Walter Reichle, D.D.S., spoke on "Dental Health." The mothers greatly enjoyed these speakers, whose talks mainly concerned the preschool child.

Both doctors have a child enrolled in the Albany Preschool. Preceding the doctors, a speaker for the Albany City Hall Bond issue gave a short talk.

Vote!

September 29th, next Tuesday, Albany's registered voters are scheduled to pass on a bond issue designed to provide our city with new offices, a new police station and a new fire house.

The arguments in favor of this bond issue appear to be overwhelmingly in its favor.

The cost to the taxpayer will be spread over a period of 30 years and will be very small. The experts have figured that it will cost 12 cents per year on each $100 of ASSESSED valuation, that is for an Albany home assessed at $2500 the added tax would be $3. The issue is limited to a maximum interest rate of 6 per cent. However in the remote possibility the rate should rise to that figure before the bonds were sold it would mean an increase in the tax rate of 16 cents per $100 instead of the planned 12 cents, or $4 per $100 instead of the projected $3.

As a matter of fact many experts believe the bonds can be sold for a maximum interest rate of between 4 and 4½ per cent, possibly even lower.

With materials and labor rising at the rate of five per cent or more each year, and with the future promising an even higher rate of increase, the City of Albany can save many thousands of dollars by replacing its crowded, dilapidated, and even dangerous buildings now.

Many elections of this type have been lost by a light vote. You owe it to yourselves, and to your city to vote on these two measures. Back your city officials, your efficient fire and police departments and give them a habitable and safe place in which to work.

Let everyone turn out and —
GET OUT THE VOTE NEXT TUESDAY.

United Crusade Fashion Show to Send-off Drive

High style for high-aiming, hard-working doorbell ringers!

This is the promise of a luncheon and fashion show set for October 6 in the Claremont Hotel and announced today by Mrs. Everett L. Bertillon, chairman of Alameda County's United Crusade Residential Division.

The 12 noon fashion event — featuring styles from I. Magnin & Co.'s fall collections — is to be a gay send-off for the Crusade's traditionally feminine volunteer contingent.

Just eight days later, on October 14, these community- and fashion-conscious homemakers, mothers, business and professional women will begin a county-wide neighbor-to-neighbor solicitation to benefit 89 local health, welfare and youth guidance agencies. Albany's leaders of the residential appeal are Mrs. Clarence R. Quick, 920 Ordway Street, chairman, and Mrs. Lee A. Seidel, 958 Ordway, vice chairman.

City of El Cerrito Plans 'Open House'

Thursday, Oct. 1

The City of El Cerrito is planning on holding an "Open House" at its city hall on Manila Avenue, just off San Pablo, on Thursday, October 1. Plans of the new buildings and civic center, as drawn up by a corps of architects, will be on display.

The project calls for a new city hall, police and fire department buildings, community center, library addition, new corporation yard and landscaping. The project is to be covered by a proposed bond issue of $1,500,000 which El Cerrito voters will pass on at the polls October 20.

According to City Manager Kenneth H. Smith the open house on October 1 will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. Members of the city council will be on hand to greet guests, and all city hall employees will be at their posts.

PT&T Appoints Clifford Meese

Clifford H. Meese, of 101 Palm Drive, Piedmont, has begun his duties as Manager of Pacific Telephone's office here.

Meese, former Assistant Manager of the company's Hayward office, succeeds Charles F. Berlenbach, Jr., of 17 Bates Boulevard, Orinda. Berlenbach has been named Manager of the Mill Valley office.

BEHIND THE SCENES

Everyone is interested in what goes on "behind the scenes" especially in banks (MONEY is such a fascinating subject). Actually cash money is a small part of banking, which we might describe generally as nothing more than a system of BOOKKEEPING. Here at MECHANICS — while we use the very latest in electronic equipment for speed and accuracy — we believe that there is much more to banking. Our purpose is to maintain personal contact with our customers so that they will feel that they are not doing business with a "machine". Most people like this and we think you will too. If you are not already a depositor, you are cordially invited to become one. There is a reason why so many say, "My Bank is the Mechanics".

VIEW OF CHARLES DICKENS' Old Curiosity Shop, London, England. Second from the left is Mrs. May Ellis Olson, and to her right Harold W. Olson. Mrs. Olson has written a very interesting account of their recent tour of Europe and has brought back some excellent views of historic sites taken during the trip.

May Ellis Olson Tells of Many Historic Places Visited On Tour Of Europe

(Editor's Note: In the following article Mrs. May Ellis Olson tells of the many sights and scenes visited during a recent tour of Europe. She was accompanied during the tour by her husband, Harold W. Olson. The Olsons are well known throughout the Bay Area, and especially in Albany where they have been active in social and business activities for many years. They operate the Ellis-Olson Mortuary in Albany.)

By MAY ELLIS OLSON

A budget tour of England and the continent, seeing it all, or as much as possible in thirty days, is a wonderful experience.

We left San Francisco aboard a TWA plane for Idlewild, New York, a huge international airport terminal teeming with arrivals and departures. After a stop-over of a few hours, the thirty-six members of our tour group boarded another plane, to sleep their way across the Atlantic Ocean.

We arrived at the airport in London, England. This is the largest city in the world by population and built by the Romans in 45 A.D. London is a crowded, smokey city, full of hustle and bustle. Everyone drives on the wrong side of the street, with constant honking of horns, and sudden turns by the drivers right in the middle of crowded traffic. We visited Trafalgar Square, where Lord Nelson's statue tops a tall column; heard the soap-box orators at the Marble Arch in Hyde Park; thrilled to Big Ben booming out the hours. We drove along the Mall past Clarence House, the home of Princess Margaret and her Queen Mother, Elizabeth. Then on to Buckingham Palace for the changing of the guard. No fairy palace this, but a very cold and austere pile of stone.

Next, we visited Westminster Abbey founded in 1065 by Edward the Confessor. Inside the entrance is the tomb of the Unknown Warrior. The Abbey is so massive, so beautiful and sacred, everyone speaks in hushed tones. We passed corridors where lay the remains of Kings, Queens, and many famous people, one hundred thousand burials in all. Entombed there are Robert Browning, Charles Dickens, Rudyard Kipling, Lord Tennyson, Oliver Cromwell, some in effigy. Many memorials are dedicated to men and women in the Arts, among them Handel and Jenny Lind, the Swedish nightingale. We truly walked on hallowed ground. Many Kings and Queens mortal remains rest here, including Mary, Queen of Scots, Henry the Eighth, and the tomb of Edward the Confessor. At his tomb, many healings have taken place. We passed the Coronation Chair under which stands the Stone of Scone, England's most precious relic. The Chair has been used at every coronation since Edward the Second, in 1300. ## MAYOR, MRS. ZAHN CLASH AT COUNCIL

In a wordy clash at the regular Albany Council meeting Monday night, Mayor Jerome Blank accused Councilwoman Zahn of attempting to put pressure on Councilman Keck by complaining to his employers.

The Mayor said he, together with Councilmen Donahue and Howell had thoroughly investigated the matter, and that he had prepared a statement covering the incident in full. Mayor Blank's signed statement as read before the council, is as follows:

"I have been called by two newspapers and asked to make a statement on a recent incident involving Vice-Mayor Leonard L. Keck.

"Last March Mr. Keck was called into conference by his employer, the P.G.&E., and was told by his district supervisor that Councilwoman Kathe Zahn had contacted P.G.&E. and had discussed Mr. Keck's activities on the City Council with their Vice-President.

"On August 24, 1959, in response to my request to investigate a charge brought by Mrs. Zahn against Elmer Nelson, Recreation Superintendent, Mr. Keck read a statement to the City Council which stated that after careful investigation, Mr. Keck found that Mrs. Zahn's statement against the Recreation Superintendent charging him with profanity and incompetency in his job, were untrue. The following week, Mr. Keck was called into a second conference by his employer, and was told that Mrs. Zahn had again contacted them, had talked to the Vice-President and again discussed Mr. Keck's activities on the Council. In particular, Mrs. Zahn discussed Mr. Keck's statement to the Council disagreeing with Mrs. Zahn's charges against Mr. Nelson.

"After Mr. Keck mentioned this to the members of the City Council, Councilmen Howell and Donahue and myself decided to carry on an investigation of this matter. We had a meeting with the Vice-President of P.G.&E. and he affirmed that Mrs. Zahn had discussed Mr. Keck's council activities with him on two occasions. He stated, however that the P.G.&E. had never exerted any pressure of any kind on Mr. Keck, nor would he have to be concerned in any way about losing his job or being transferred. I feel that the P.G.&E. is a fine company with whom the City of Albany has always had the finest of relations, and I am completely satisfied that regardless of any visits to them by Councilwoman Zahn, that they will allow the employees to engage in civic duties on the Albany City Council without any interference."

(Signed)

Jerome Blank, Mayor

In other matters Mrs. Zahn criticized the Albany Chamber of Commerce for endorsing the bond issue coming before the voters next Tuesday on the ground the Chamber had no business getting into politics. President Ernest Dix of the Chamber, who was present, spoke on behalf of the Chamber's stand.

Mrs. Zahn also questioned the right of individuals to display signs in their front yards favoring passage of the bonds. Mayor Blank sent for a copy of the ordinance involved, which he read to show that the law applied to places where "home industry" was being operated, but not to political matters and where the signs were erected by property owners, or with their consent.

A hearing on sidewalk assessments was set for October 13 at 8 p.m. at the request of City Engineer John D. Dayton.

The council approved 4 to 1, the appointment of Assistant Fire Chief John Verrelli to permanent rank. Mrs. Zahn dissented. Verrelli has been serving in that position on a probationary appointment for the last six months.

Mrs. Zahn moved that the city clerk write the Bay Area Rapid Transit District asking a speaker for the council meeting of October 5 to explain the District's plans and the bond issue to come before the voters on October 20.

Registration will begin at 7:15 p.m. Visitation of classrooms will be part of the program and was designed to replace the afternoon "Room Teas." The evening will end with refreshments in the Cornell cafeteria.

Democratic Club To Hear Speaker

Mrs. Lynn White, Executive Secretary of H.O.M.E. (Housing Opportunities Made Equal) will address the Albany Democratic Club on the topic, "Housing, the Key to Racial Discrimination," on Tuesday evening, October 13, at the Cornell School cafeteria. The public is invited.

Albany Course in Money Management

A course, Money Management, open to the enrollment of those residing in or out of Albany, is being offered by the Albany Adult Education Center for the first time this Fall. Scheduled for Tuesday evenings, 7 to 10 at the Albany High School building, 603 Key Route Boulevard, the course is designed to develop an awareness of the problems confronting the consumer today. It will also help families gain the knowledge and practical experience necessary to meet these problems.

Class sessions will include non-technical discussions and demonstrations of such topics as: intelligent shopping techniques, getting the most for the food dollar, clothing, shopping problems, stretching the clothing dollars, and learning to recognize quality in home furnishings. The use and abuse of credit buying will also be examined, and consultants with practical business knowledge will be available for discussion of the problems of family housing; buying or renting; methods of financing; and dealing with Realtors, architects and contractors.

The instructor, Mrs. Lizette

Murphy, has had extensive teaching experience in home management and home economics at both the high school and the college level.

Literary Discussion

A new and different evening Literary Discussion Group has been scheduled by the Albany Adult Center, 603 Key Route Boulevard, for the Fall quarter. Open to the enrollment of those living out of, as well as in, Albany, it is being held Wednesday evenings, 7 to 10, starting September 16.

Lawrence Berger, the leader, has been associated with the Great Books Program and that of the World Politics under U.C. Extension. He is presently serving as president of the International House Association and is a consulting member of the Institute of Personal and Social Relations in Oakland.

Hop, Skip & Jump!

New listing! And — convenience is the keynote! 3 bedrooms, 1½ baths. $16,950! Lovely home in an excellent location. Convenient to all grade level of school. Transportation and shopping nearby. Reasonable down payment should handle!

Quality View Home!

New listing! This time it's a 3 year old executive type home in the El Cerrito foothills. Just listed at $28,500! A magnificent marine view! Here's a beautiful large home in a very nice and terrifically convenient location! It's a 2 bedroom, 2 bath, 2 car beauty with a huge semi-developed downstairs area. You'll love it! — Such living — Ummmm!

Takes A Little Cash

money to get the best deals, but for $3,900 down, you can buy this 5 room, 2 bedroom view home for $11,500, and assume a 4 per cent loan with monthly payments of $61.00 a month. This payment includes your taxes and insurance!

Small Price

Big deal! Excellent 2 bedroom home at a full price of $9,200! Owner will carry first loan for a responsible buyer.

A Little Income

in a bargain buy! A duplex — 11 years old. Each unit 3 rooms, and renting at $65 per month! Full price $13,750! There's expansion possibilities for another unit too!

This Duplex

Invites from without — and from within! Are you looking for a lovely? — here 'tis! Each unit a full 5 room, 2 bedroom. Here's your own home with a heap of living — and your neighbor is helping you pay for it! $21,500 worth of value!

Worth The Money!

Sixplex! Get your pencil out and start figuring! $5,280 annual gross! For sale at the full price of $42,500! An 8 year old stucco building and very attractive. Situated on a corner site, 75x100. Five blocks from El Cerrito Plaza — Call us — we'll give you the address!

Trade Up!

Why not? Probably for the same amount of invested capital you now have in that smaller home or income property, we could arrange a trade to this 2 year old 12 unit apartment building. Why not for the same money increase your monthly equity building rate, and perhaps provide for your selves more in pocket money? Our owner wishes to trade down — will you take advantage of an opportunity?

Venetian Blinds Solve Storage Problem

THIS DELIGHTFUL child's room features an unusual Venetian blind treatment of storage areas. In a small room which had no closets, an arrangement was devised with shelves and clothes poles and Venetians as doors. One set of Venetians are of alternating slats of red, white and pink; the other—a pattern of gold leaves sprinkled on a white slat. These Venetian "doors" are highly decorative as well as functional.

★ LETTERS TO THE EDITOR ★

The following statement was prepared by Mrs. Elda Foot of 35 San Gabriel Avenue, Albany 6, California, and read before the City Council at its meeting on Monday night, September 21:

As an interested taxpayer of Albany, I would like to make a few remarks regarding the "Arguments Against" the coming election for the financing of our new city buildings. Upon receiving my sample ballot and reading these arguments, I proceeded to do some checking through financial records and back council minutes and found that there were many discrepancies between the actual records and the statements made by Mrs. Zahn.

Statement by Mrs. Z. — "Last November, the voters turned down a proposition of the City Council to erect in two separate buildings a fire house and police station." This is not correct! On November 4, 1958, Measure "C" which called for the approval of the present building plans, was passed by a MAJORITY vote. Although you state that your suggestions to revamp the plans and combine all proposed buildings under one roof fell on deaf ears, I could find no such suggestion in the official Council minutes. And, if this suggestion has been given at any time since the November election, and not in the official minutes, you, Mrs. Zahn, were ignoring the fact that the majority of the voters passed on the present building plans.

Statement by Mrs. Z. — "Many citizens feel the proposed buildings are too costly and beyond the ability of the average taxpayer to pay as well as those on lower fixed incomes. The burden of financing this 'costly proposal' would have to be borne by property owners."

Answer — In the May 5, 1958 Council minutes it was suggested by the Mayor that you be appointed as chairman of a special public building committee, to make a study of public buildings constructed in nearby cities and submit a report to the Council as to the types of buildings, estimated costs, and the ways and means of financing same. Councilman Blank moved, seconded by Keck, that this suggestion be passed, which it was. As a result of this appointment, Mrs. Z., did you not devote a great deal of time working hard on this project, UNRESTRICTED BY ANY OTHER COUNCIL MEMBER, to come up with the plans essentially as they are today?

Although the motion which appointed you to this chairmanship asked that you submit a report to the council as to the types of buildings, estimated costs and ways and means of financing same, wasn't the first report made when you presented the completed plans and these models to the Council members, Dept. heads and the press at an invitation tea? Why then, do you now say that you are opposed to separate buildings when this is your original plan? When you were working on these plans and models in the beginning, Mrs. Z., did you not then know that the cost of your proposal would have to be borne by property owners? Where else did you think the money was coming from? Didn't your acceptance of this Chairmanship also include the carrying out of the request for you to submit a report of estimated costs and ways and means of financing? The time to think about the "Additional burden" upon the property owners was before you presented these plans for adoption by the taxpayers last November.

Statement — "With the utilization of the second floor of the city offices there is plenty of space available." This is contradicting the statement which you have made publicly many times, to the effect that there are too many stairs up to the Engineer's office and it is difficult for some and impossible for others to climb them.

Statement — "My suggestion to appoint a citizens committee to help sell the idea fell on deaf ears." (No record). If this was your feeling in the matter, Mrs. Z., why then, did you not have such a committee working with you before the election last November? You state that it will cost the taxpayers $5,000 for a special election. BUT, you neglected to point out to them that it has already cost them approximately $30,000 in rising building costs since the November election. Also, that the city has already invested about $2,843.50 for the present plans, these models and your personal expense account. Have you forgotten that on November 20, 1953 you voted 'NO' upon a motion which would have purchased property on which we could have begun to plan for a centralized civic center?

Statement by Z. — "El Cerrito recently sold $100,000 worth of bonds at 5 per cent." Where did you get this misinformation? E.C. resolution No. 2217A lists the following bonds sold: These were all $1000 bonds. 75 at 5 per cent, 20 at 4 1/2 per cent, 204 at 4 per cent, 60 at 3 1/2 per cent and 40 at 3 1/4 per cent. Certainly these figures are not the 5 per cent interest which you quoted.

Statement by Z. — "In the past we received a good income from sales tax — now the E.C. shopping center is killing our business slowly but surely." Council members and the Albany Times were recently given sales tax figures. May I quote these for the years:

57-58 (before center) $175,760.42
58-59 (after center) 194,709.26
Shopping center opened July 9, 1958. This shows an increase of over $19,000. You often say figures don't lie. Certainly the figures show that Albany has not lost sales tax money.

You also mention the amount of interest which will have to be paid if these bonds are passed.

Anyone who has purchased or is purchasing a home, will understand that you pay much more than the original asking price when you have to borrow money to "pay off the mortgage." This is also true of anything paid for "on time."

I have visited the buildings in question, but did not find they looked "disorderly." Under the present conditions, I felt that the city employees had done a very good job of keeping them up with what they have to work with. I would like to quote from an inspection made by a termite company in 1955: "It is apparent that rot in this area (south-wall) extends to the roof, as the studs and sheathing can be pulled out by hand." Would you consider this to be a safe building? I believe that those responsible for repairing these buildings have used wisdom by not going into costly repairs, but by just taking care of emergencies. They are hoping, I'm sure, that the people of Albany will see to it that this election is passed and that such expensive repairs will not have to be made on unsafe buildings.

Albany Citizens' Committee

opposes bond issue for new buildings for following reasons:

1. Plans are too pretentious and costly in relation to Albany's specific needs.
2. Proposal to bond Albany taxpayers for $585,000, plus potential maximum 6% interest on above could conceivably exceed one million dollars, total.
3. It appears logical, because of defeat of last November's bond issue, that original plans could have been revised to effect greater savings to taxpayers. Also, the unwarranted expense of this special election is ill-considered at this time, when it could have been included in next April's election.
4. Many Albany citizens live on low social security or pensions, and with increased federal, state, county, city and school taxes additional burden on low-income home owners would be disastrous.
5. The Albany Citizens' Committee recommends a NO vote on Propositions A and B.

ing little community of 550 persons to the city of 18,500 today.
But . . . would the founding fathers be proud of all of our facilities? We point with pride to our present efficient City Administration, to the outstanding records of our Fire and Police Departments . . . but what could we say to those first citizens about our city offices still located in an overcrowded converted store building . . . to our Fire House, so adequate in 1915, but now in 1959 attempting to house a department of 21 full time employees and four pieces of fire fighting equipment as well as two other motorized units . . . of our Police Department of 21 men and all the necessary files and equipment still housed in that converted five room residence?
The founders of Albany had a vision and made it come true . . .

Are we, the present citizens going to live up to that faith and pride in our city? It is up to you next Tuesday.

is glorious with stained glass windows, towering ceilings and built of marble, black with smoke and age. Many brilliant flags and shields of knights of the Garter and of the Bath are displayed. The grandeur and dignity of Westminster Abbey must be seen to be realized.
We stopped at the "Old Curiosity Shop" made famous by Charles Dickens, built in 1567; drove past the house on Wimpole Street from which Elizabeth Barrett eloped with Robert Browning; strolled down Fleet Street where all the newspaper offices are located, side by side; paused for a moment at No. 10 Downing Street, home of the Prime Minister. Next door, at No. 11, lives the Chancellor of the Exchequer.
Our tour visited St. Paul's Cathedral where English Royalty worship and which contains, among others, the tomb of Fleming, the discoverer of Penicillin; passed the Bank of England, the oldest and richest bank in the world. It is guarded each night by the Queen's Horse Guards from sundown to sunup, traditionally carried on since an attempted robbery several centuries ago.
From there we visited the Tower of London, with its walls 15 feet thick, built by William the Conqueror in 1078; saw the White Tower that was Anne Boleyn's wedding bower and, later, her prison before she was beheaded. The Tower of London houses the Crown Jewels. The Imperial State Crown, in Wakefield Tower, contains over 500 diamonds, rubies, pearls and emeralds. One of the four existing Star of Africa diamonds, 530 carats, is set in the head of the Sovereign's Sceptre.
In Piccadilly Circus, the Times Square of London, the streets were so crowded at midnight every one was shoulder to shoulder. The sky was aglow with neon signs. Among the swarming populace were many ladies of the evening with hair of purple, pink or blue, vying with the neon lights; dignified English gentlemen in bowler hats, striped trousers, and carrying a rolled umbrella and brief-case. On our way back to our hotel, we passed Charing Cross and Banbury Cross. Many centuries ago, Queen Eleanor of England's funeral cortege passed that way and, at each stop of the journey, her husband later erected a memorial to thus the names.

Next day, driving west of London, we passed Kensington Palace. It was built by William the Third and was the birthplace of Queen Victoria. On further saw a beautiful park called herds Bush, named after a notorious robber who used to there. The countryside was tifully green with loads of blooming, the air heavy with their fragrance. We passed charming cottages with climbing over the doorway came to Stokes Poges, a old church built in the 13th tury. This is where Thomas wrote his "Elegy in a Churchyard." Both he and mother are buried there.
On the way to Windsor, Eton College, we saw many students in wing collars, ties and tails, the requirment of the students. Arriving a quaint little town of Windsor, outside Windsor Castle, we Queen Elizabeth the Second's flag flying from the ard, indicating she was in dence. We entered St. George's Chapel, part of the castle, King George the Fifth, Queen Mary lie side by side. They lie, carved in effigy, on top of their tomb, their clasped in prayer and an their heads. Many beautiful and carvings attract ands of visitors. Leaving sor, we passed Ascot Wall is where the Queen and guards ride in state the miles from the castle to Ascot formally open the races.
We visited Hampton Palace, another huge pile of in Tudor design, built in the century. It is surrounded by tiful gardens, with acres of heads, all blooming in gory, many lovely trees shrubs, and again, lilacs fusion.
The next day we enjoyed dame Tussaud's Wax Works found fascinating groups of size figures. These included enhower, Truman, and m of the royal family, plus a ber of Horrors depicting crimes and the victims.
(In the Second Installment follow, Mrs. Olson tells of flight across the Channel, land and the continuation of European Tour).

Albany Celebrates 51st Birthday

MR. AND MRS. J. J. ROSEDALE in the courtyard of the University of Heidelberg, Germany. The Rosedales are the parents of Mrs. Robert Kleinhammer, of 833 Ramona Avenue, Albany. Mrs. Kleinhammer is active in PTA, United Crusade and many other civic organizations throughout the East Bay Area.

We congratulate the citizens; honor the founders, and offer best wishes for the future of the City of Albany on this, it's 51st birthday. Congratulations also to the Albany Times at the beginning of their 25th year.

=TISSOT WATCHES=

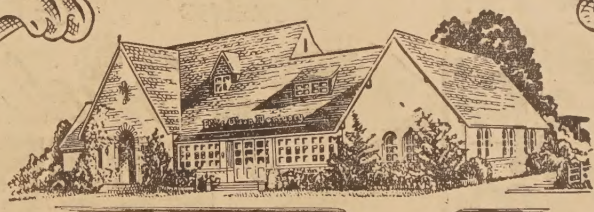

We feel privileged to be able to bring you Tissot watches, famous the world over for precision and beauty. Every Tissot watch contains a fully-jeweled micronized movement and is shock-resistant, anti-magnetic with an unbreakable lifetime mainspring. You'll marvel at the classic distinction of Tissot watches, but until you wear one you will never fully appreciate their unexcelled accuracy. More than a century of experience in precision craftsmanship has made the Tissot watch the most treasured gift you can give; the most faithful watch you can wear. Our new Tissot collection includes water-resistant, self-winding and diamond-set models from $39.50 to $95, including Federal Tax.

Letter to Editor

1108 Solano Avenue
Albany 6, California
Editor of The Albany Times
Dear Mr. Weller:

In keeping with the policies set forth in the by-laws of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, which reads in part "to promote the education of young men in the State of California in the proper sense of civic duty and responsibility and to foster their intelligent participation in the solution of civic, state and national problems," the Albany Junior Chamber of Commerce has endorsed unanimously the measures "A" and "B" for new civic buildings in the City of Albany.

The measures have been thoroughly investigated by our members. We feel the need for replacement of the inadequate and dilapidated buildings must be faced. The need we have and the pride we have in our community demands that we take a stand.

Yours truly,
(signed)

Chairman, Civic Affairs
Committee, Albany Junior Chamber of Commerce

Are the new Fire House, Police Station, and City Hall proposed for Albany actually "too costly and beyond the ability of the average taxpayer to pay" as it is claimed that some citizens feel?

I suggest instead of feeling for the answer let's actually figure it out. Let every taxpayer figure out for himself how much it will add to his own tax bill. Let every one base his decision on the actual dollars and cents it will cost him, and see if he thinks the new facilities are "costly."

For my part two dollars a year for the new Police Station and Fire House, and one dollar a year for the new City Hall certainly does not seem "costly and beyond the ability to pay" for providing proper and adequate facilities for
